

Ari DeAundre Jones

AriDJones@gmail.com

(404) 859-3924

EDUCATION:

Georgia State University

Bachelor of Science, Neuroscience, May 2017

Master of Science, Neuroscience, May 2018

Master of Public Health, Epidemiology, May 2022

Master of Science, Health Informatics, May 2023

EMPLOYMENT & EXPERIENCE:

iScribes: Atlanta, GA

Medical Scribe, Aug 2018- December 2018

- Work hand-in-hand with iScribes employees and physicians
- Provide documentation support to healthcare professionals
- Be responsible for maintaining the expectations of the program and support client satisfaction
- Provide training and continuing education to the employees assigned to my team
- Participate and contribute towards the improvement of the overall team
- Mentor other scribes
- Network with Healthcare Systems Nationally
- Assist with Physician efficiency management
- Document thorough assessment and plan
- Satisfy subjective and objective findings

*M*Modal: Atlanta, GA*

Medical Scribe, Feb 2018- July 2018.

- Work hand-in-hand with M*Modal employees and our customers
- Provide documentation support to healthcare professionals
- Be responsible for maintaining the expectations of the program and support client satisfaction
- Provide training and continuing education to the employees assigned to your team
- Participate and contribute towards the improvement of the overall team
- Mentor other M*Modal scribes
- Occasionally travel to meet with customers and other scribes to deliver support services
- Network with Healthcare Systems Nationally
- Assist with Physician efficiency management
- Document thorough assessment and plan
- Satisfy subjective and objective findings

Grady Health System: Atlanta, GA

Nurse Extern, February 2025- Present

- Participates in unit's performance improvement initiatives and uses the results to initiate changes in nursing practice in order to improve patient/family care.
- Provides education to patient/family and other health care providers
- Advocates for the patient/family rights and educates patient/family concerning their responsibilities
- Evaluates progress toward achievement of outcomes
- Executes the individualized patient/family plan
- Develops an individualized plan of care that identifies strategies and alternatives to attain expected outcomes and collaborates with other members of the healthcare team as appropriate.
- Coordinates care delivery.
- Identifies expected outcomes for the patient/family.
- Analyzes the assessment data to determine the nurse diagnoses or issues.
- Functions under the direction of the Licensed Nurse (RN/LPN) based upon knowledge and skills Exhibits professional behaviors at all times.
- Collects comprehensive data pertinent to the patient's health or the situation.

Neuropsych Technician, June 2024- January 2025

- Performs administrative activities associated with the conduct of clinical trials.
- Attends community outreach events to raise awareness of clinic services and provides cognitive screening to elderly community dwelling populations.

- Maintains data pertaining to research projects, completes source documents/case report forms, and performs data entry.
- Orders and maintains equipment and supplies.
- Reviews medical records and/or conducts screenings for recruitment of study participants.
- Administers cognitive tests to patients and scoring of protocols.
- Ensures patient files are complete and available for review on appointment days.
- Monitors patient access line and directs patient calls to the appropriate staff.
- Participates in clinic's performance improvement initiatives.
- Coordinates services, schedules procedures, creates and maintains case packages, and monitors charges.

Pre Procedural Coordinator, September 2022- May 2024

- The Pre-Procedure Coordinator is responsible for care coordination for patients undergoing OR and clinic- based procedures, serving as their primary point of contact for all customer service, administrative and scheduling needs
- They act as the liaison for the patient and family, working with both administrative and clinical staff from multiple departments to improve the patient's overall experience
- The Pre-Procedure Coordinator must be organized and be able to manage a demanding workload with accuracy
- Works collaboratively with the multi-disciplinary team to ensure timely response to clinical questions or concerns
- Responds to both written and oral correspondence regarding scheduling changes/cancellations in a timely, accurate manner
- Adapts well to changes and priority level of duties and demonstrates flexibility with section and organizational need
- Maintains positive attitude consisting of cooperation, self-motivation, courtesy, and professionalism
- Schedules pre-surgical testing as needed
- Coordinate follow-up care for patients who do not pass pre-admission testing requirements
- Reviews and provides patients with pre and post-procedure care instructions and ensures proper follow-up appointments are scheduled at the time the procedure is scheduled
- Confirms patient's insurance coverage and communicates the need for prior authorization to appropriate parties as needed
- Coordinate the fees related to scheduled surgical procedure such as co-pays, co-insurance, and any other monies due timely and accurately
- Schedules office based medical procedures and submits OR case requests for patients with appropriate provider and time/location slot, utilizing appropriate scheduling platform
- Effectively utilizes clinical knowledge when determining if the appointment is consistent with the diagnosis/indications indicated by the provider
- Provides accurate, detailed information to patients regarding test preparations and any other directional information needed; takes appropriate action in responding to questions from patients
- Thoroughly screens data obtained for completeness and obtains any additional information that is required

Unit Clerk, Jul 2018- August 2022

- The Unit Clerk assists the nursing and medical staff by performing a variety of service activities and clerical tasks that ensures the efficiency of the patient care unit.
- The Unit Clerk provides services to nurses, physicians, other healthcare workers, patients, families, and visitors.
- The Unit Clerk is responsible for gathering, transcribing and managing patient care orders, processing admissions, discharges, and transfers of patients, organizing the unit, ordering & maintaining unit supplies and equipment, maintaining a safe environment, communicating effectively, and utilizing technology.
- The role of the Unit Clerk also includes patient advocacy and performance improvement.

Clinic Assistant May 2015 – June 2018

- Supports patient care activities such as triage, vital signs, wound care and patient transport.
- Assists with minor procedures, physical exams, and diagnostic procedures as directed and according to unit standards.

- Conducts specialized tasks such as EKG, venipuncture, suture removal, nail care, foot care, enemas, suctioning, post mortem care, and accuchecks.
- Collects patient care data/information and specimen accurately and timely.
- Documents patient care data/admission information accurately and timely on unit specific forms.
- Sanitizes patient care equipment and exam room.
- Inventories the patient care environment and exam rooms as delegated.
- Facilitates unit performance improvement initiatives.
- Gathers, transcribes and manages patient care orders, processing admissions, discharges, and transfers of patients, organizing the unit, ordering & maintaining unit supplies and equipment, maintaining a safe environment, communicating effectively, and utilizing technology.
- Provides patient advocacy and performance improvement.
- Observes the physician during patient encounters and performs documentation on the physician's behalf. Enters information into the patient's electronic or written chart. All documentation is reviewed and edited by the physician.
- Functions as the physician's personal secretary and requires access to electronic databases that is similar to the access granted to the physicians themselves.
- Locates past medical records, prior lab/radiology results, or past visit histories for the physician to review.

United States Navy Reserve: United States

Hospital Corpsman, June 2014 – Pres.

- Administers a wide range of preventive care.
- Delivers emergency medical or dental treatment to Sailors and Marines in the field.
- Maintains patient treatment records.
- Performs clinical tests.
- Serves as an operating room technician for general and specialized surgery.
- Processes dental X-rays and operate X-ray equipment.
- Works in the field with Navy SEALs or Seabees or be assigned to Fleet Marine Force.
- Constructs dental crowns and bridges.

SKILLS & CERTIFICATIONS:

CPR certified, current, American Heart Association
 Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Training, current, CPI Inc.
 Instrument Sterilization, HIPPA & JCAHO Knowledge
 Wound Care (Debridement, Infection Management & Bandaging)
 Vital Signs, Venipuncture, Injections, Ancillary Testing
 Patient Advocacy & Education
 Universal Precautions & Infection Control
 Medical Billing & Coding, Medical Records Management
 Medical Office Management (Patient Scheduling, Insurance)
 Microsoft Office, Medical Terminology, Data Entry (75 WPM)
 EMT-Basic

AWARDS & PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

National Society of Leadership & Success, April 11- Pres.
American Medical Student Association, Oct. 15- Pres
Golden Key International Honour Society, Oct. 15- Pres
Society for Collegiate Leadership & Achievement, Oct.15- Pres.
National Society of Collegiate Scholars, Oct. 15- Pres.
NAACP, Apr 11- Pres
 Urban League of Greater Atlanta, Sep 17- Pres.
 VoteEverywhere Aug 17- Present
 Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. Nov 17-Pres
 Peer Advisor for Veteran Education (PAVE) Aug17- Pres